Glenn is accident prone (34-22-35). It's all very well sitting there lusty over her but, believe me, you're a sight safer at a distance. This was the girl who solved the problem of screwing in a Mini. She thought, Endit up knocking the handbrake off and rolling across the downland towards a 300ft white cliff of Dover! Would have made it, too, if they hadn't run into a couple who had just got to the short strokes before the earth moved and a Mini bust like clavicle.

It was Glenn who found the man of her dreams was content unless she lay down with an alarm clock under her bottom set to go off in 15 minute time.

The vibrations bring me off, he whispered as she rammed the clock down his throat.

It was Glenn who had the most romantic car: she'd even yearned for take her out in her car to the back of the golf links and whisper, 'Get your laughing gear around that' in his sexy, vibrant voice. No doubt about it, if you ended up in bed with Glenn, it would be a disaster!
